Thanks for your email Andrew, and again so sorry I couldn't make the meeting on Friday...although I did have to get a new battery!

I will contact Rena directly in another email.

Very best,
Susan

Will do. I'm also copying Rena, our new Chair.

Hope you get your car situation resolved!

Hi Andrew, I just got in my car and have a dead battery...I don't think I'll be able to make the meeting in time but very much interested in an update on the Sidewalk Vending Ordinance. If you could please make sure its included in the 2018 topics of interest and info from the CA office I would appreciate it.

I might try Uber in the meantime.

Thanks very much,
Susan Bursk

Hi Andrew,

Happy New Year and thanks for your email. I remember that Caprice from the CA office said she thought Mike would discuss it at our last meeting of the year, but since he wasn't able to attend I haven't heard much and am still interested in what's happening with it.

Definitely something to put on the 2018 agenda.

Thanks again for your follow up...see you very soon!

Very best,

Hey Susan,

The agenda should be going out later today. Our meeting will be fairly open and I believe Rena (our new Chair) wants to get input and feedback on which issues we need to concentrate on in 2018. This should certainly be one of them.

See you Thursday, and Happy New Year!

Andrew

Thanks for your email, and Happy New Year as well!

Question, I had requested an update on the Sidewalk Vending ordinance and wondered if it was going to be included on the January agenda. It has been sometime since we've received any news on the current position, and would love to hear where it stands now.

Thanks so much...Looking forward to seeing everyone next week!

Very best,
Susan
